GETTING TO KNOW STEVE

Steve Bell is the Regional Chairman for the South East of England having spent five years at regional level and three years as an Area Chairman. Steve has been involved in three associations and held various Officer positions. He has a wide experience in the party.

Steve is someone who gets things done, overseeing successful campaigns in the South East in the General and European elections and the campaign against AV.

He has chaired the candidate selection process for target seats, set up a by-election campaign team, commenced leadership training for association officers and introduced a mentoring scheme to support newly elected Chairmen as he is aware of how lonely and hard the role can be.

Before being involved in politics, Steve gave 22 years of service in the armed forces being awarded the Queen's Warrant WO11 (CSM). He served as part of the Queen's Regiment and The Princess of Wales' Royal Regiment. Steve served in many theatres abroad and has been stationed in Wales, Dartmoor, Northumberland and Northern Ireland.

Steve's other experience over the years range from being a qualified gymnast and qualified coach to being a trainer and assessor for the Duke of Edinburgh scheme at gold standard. He has also represented London in both football and athletics and represented Kent in badminton.

Steve has not always lived in the South East. He was born and brought up in Woolwich, London and lived with his family for a while in Kirkintilloch, Glasgow. He has worked in Bristol, Exeter and lived in Newlyn, Cornwall, giving him experience of life across the whole country.
