

 Conservatives

RE-ELECT STEVE BELL

Steve Bell is standing for re-election as one of the Vice Presidents of the National Convention and your representative on the Board of the Conservative Party.

So what has Steve done during his term of office?

- As Chairman of the Association Finance Board, worked with associations up and down the country in collecting the Per Member Fee
- Supported Regional and Area Teams in the South West of England as part of his Board responsibility for the South West Region
- Appointed to the Boards membership committee, which faces the difficult challenge of trying to build our party membership, a challenge which faces us all.
- Liaising and supporting the Conservative Woman's Organisation as part of his Board responsibility

Before being elected to the Party Board Steve was Regional Chairman for the South East of England and previously Area Chairman of Sussex. He continues to be an active member of three Associations including a Branch committee and Association Executive showing he's in touch with the ordinary volunteers and members of the party.

Steve has achieved the following pledges:-

- Putting the Party back into Party Conference
- Notification of Centralised Funding letters
- Voluntary Party Imprint Identification
- MERLIN Training

Find out more about Steve at: www.stevebellconservatives.com

Steve says " I must thank the National Convention for electing me to be their Vice President and to serve on the Party Board, It has been an immense privilege and honour for these past 2 years.

A great deal has been asked of us Volunteers this year and each and every time together we have delivered.

You should all be very proud of your achievements throughout this year, because I am!"

Steve was elected Vice President of the National Convention in March 2012 and since then his appointments have been, The Police & Crime Commissioners Election, Liaise with Field Campaigning for By-Elections, Liaise with Conservative Woman's Organisation, Board responsibility for the South West of England and appointed Chairman of the Association Finance Board. The remainder of his time has been supporting target Councils, visiting and speaking at Associations, Councils and external groups throughout the Country ensuring your voice is being heard and spreading the Conservative message.

I would ask you, the National Convention to vote for me again this year, to be a Vice President working for and with you all.

Steve Bell

